

APHIS Quarantined Areas

Counties currently under quarantine by USDA for Phytophthora ramorum (sudden oak death, ramorum blight, ramorum dieback) under 7CFR301.92 and USDA Emergency Order dated December 21, 2004 and effective January 10, 2005.

--Updated January 10, 2005--

The following California counties are currently under quarantine by USDA for Phytophthora ramorum (sudden oak death, ramorum blight, ramorum dieback) under 7CFR301.92 or USDA Emergency Order dated December 21, 2004, effective January 10, 2005.

- | | |
|------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1) Alameda | 8) Napa |
| 2) Contra Costa | 9) San Mateo |
| 3) Humboldt | 10) Santa Clara |
| 4) Lake | 11) Santa Cruz |
| 5) Marin | 12) San Francisco |
| 6) Mendocino | 13) Solano |
| 7) Monterrey | 14) Sonoma |

Part of the following Oregon county is currently under quarantine by USDA for Phytophthora ramorum (sudden oak death, ramorum blight, ramorum dieback) under 7CFR301.92 and USDA Emergency Order dated December 21, 2004, effective January 10, 2005.

- 1) Curry County. That portion of Curry County as follows: In T. 40 S., R. 13 W., secs. 5, 8, 16, 17, 20, 21, 28, 29, 32, and 33; southeast quarter of sec. 19; west half of sec. 9; west half of sec. 4; and northeast quarter of sec. 30.

